

Weekly Report
20/03/2019 – 28/03/2019

This week I have added the interesting point of each aspect we extracted in the paper. I found the software visualization trends is increasing in all viewpoint. Anyway, I've talked with Dr. Leonel Merino, who is the second author, he has some comments that I have to discuss with him via Skype. If it has some significant change, I will talk it with you then.
